ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO AMEND BY INTERLINEATION

Issue Date: July 24, 2006

Effective Date: July 24, 2006

On July 21, 2006, the Commission's Staff filed a motion asking for leave to amend its complaint by interlineation. The motion explains that the complaint incorrectly cites a Commission rule, and asks leave to correct that citation. Staff represents that it has contacted counsel for the other parties and that none object to the proposed amendment.

Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-2.080(20) provides that any pleading may be amended at any time by leave of the Commission. Staff's proposed amendment of its complaint merely corrects a citation. That amendment will be helpful to the Commission and to all other parties. The Commission will grant leave to make that amendment.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The Commission's Staff is granted leave to amend its complaint by interlineation as requested in its motion to amend.

2. This order shall become effective on July 24, 2006.
