RESPONSE OF AG PROCESSING INC A COOPERATIVE
TO MISSOURI-AMERICAN'S MOTION OR REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED TREATMENT OF SPECIAL CONTRACT APPLICATION

COMES NOW AG PROCESSING INC A COOPERATIVE ("AGP") and responds to Missouri-American Water Company's ("MAWC") Motion for Expedited Treatment as follows:

1. AGP adopts and incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1, 2 and 4 of the Response to Request for Expedited Treatment filed by the Missouri Office of the Public Counsel on October 22, 2003 except insofar as those paragraphs uniquely refer to the Public Counsel or Staff in which such references should be conformed to refer to AGP.

2. AGP incorporates by reference Paragraphs 7 and 8 of its Application to Intervene and Paragraphs 11 and 12 of its Motion for Expedited Consideration pertaining to its Application to Intervene filed today.

3. AGP cannot review and analyze materials to which it does not have access. Filing critical factual materials on a delayed basis necessarily results in a delay while other parties review and analyze these materials after they are in the first instance made available. It is unlikely that such review could be completed by the proposed effective date of the tariff sheet and certainly by October 31, 2003. Thus in the interest of potentially aggrieved parties, MAWC's request should be denied.

WHEREFORE, AGP prays a Commission Order consistent with this response.

Respectfully submitted,

FINNEGAN, CONRAD & PETERSON, L.C.
