NOTICE REGARDING APPEARANCE REQUIREMENT AT ORAL ARGUMENT AND ADVISING PARTIES OF HOW TO PARTICIPATE IN ORAL ARGUMENT BY TELEPHONE

Issue Date: March 31, 2009

The Commission has scheduled an oral argument on Kansas City Power and Light Company's ("KCPL") Motion for Reconsideration of the Commission's March 18, 2009 order modifying the procedural schedule for the True-Up proceedings. That argument is set to commence at 10:00 a.m. on April 6, 2009. The Commission recognizes that not all of the parties have filed pleadings in response to KCPL's motion and may not desire to participate in the oral argument. There is no attendance requirement for parties that do not wish to participate in the oral argument; however, failure to attend shall constitute a waiver of any right to participate in the oral argument.

To facilitate attendance for those desiring to attend, a conference call bridge has been established to allow the parties to participate in the oral argument by phone. Any party that wishes to participate by telephone may do so by calling (573) 526-6012 or (866) 630-9353 at the time set for the argument.
