

BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION
STATE OF MISSOURI

In the Matter of the Application of Chariton)
Valley Communication Corporation for Video)
Service Authorization.) Case No. KA-2008-0066

Notice of Correction

COMES NOW Chariton Valley Communication Corporation (“Chariton Valley”), pursuant to the provisions of Section 67.2679 RSMo as enacted by the 2007 House Committee Substitute for the Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 284, the 2007 Video Services Providers Act, and hereby presents this Notice of Correction to its Application and to its Video Service Authorization. In support of this Notice of Correction, Chariton Valley states as follows:

1. On August 31, 2007 Chariton Valley filed an Application for video service authorization in several political subdivisions.
2. On September 20, 2007, this Commission granted Chariton Valley’s Application and issued a Video Service Authorization.
3. In Chariton Valley’s Application, and in the Video Service Authorization, the fee amount listed for the city of Callao, Missouri was zero percent (0.0%).
4. Chariton Valley did not realize that the City of Callao did, by ordinance, impose a five percent (5.0%) fee on video service providers.
5. Chariton Valley hereby notifies the Commission that its Application, and the Video Service Authorization, should be corrected to reflect a five percent (5.0%) fee for the City of Callao.
