RE: Data Request #191, Steam Rate Case No. HO-86-189

There was usually discussion among the owners, developers and their consultants on their choice of heating energy. In all cases, KCPL provided rate schedules and, in some cases, actually did the rate calculation on whatever sources were being considered. In some cases the owner or his representative would want a comparison made of steam versus electric. In other cases the owner or his consultant would have pretty much made up their mind before we had an opportunity to have any input. In all cases, whatever written input we did have would be a part of the job files which have previously been provided on the projects in the downtown area.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "R. H. Graham", is written above the printed name.
R. H. Graham
