ORDER DIRECTING NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED REPORT AND ORDER

Issue Date: March 22, 2021

Effective Date: March 22, 2021

On December 4, 2020, the Commission conducted an evidentiary hearing in Claude Scott's complaint against Spire Missouri, Inc. d/b/a Spire. The hearing was conducted by telephone conference call, also accessible by video via Webex.

After the period for objection and correction to any exhibits expired on December 31, 2020, and January 15, 2021, respectively, the Commission on January 22, 2021, issued Notice of Admitted and Filed Exhibits, and the case was submitted to the Commission for decision.

Consistent with Commission Rule 20 CSR 4240-2.070(15)(G), the regulatory law judge has prepared a recommended report and order to decide this case.

The Commission will provide notice of the recommended report and order, which is attached to this order. Any comments supporting or opposing a recommended report and order must be filed within 10 days of issuance.¹ Comments opposing a recommended order are required to specify “detailed grounds” to contend an order is “unlawful, unjust, or unreasonable.”² The Commission may approve or reject the recommended order.³

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. Any comments supporting or opposing the recommended order shall be filed no later than April 1, 2021.

2. Comments may be filed by submission through the Commission’s electronic filing and information system (EFIS) or by mail to:

Secretary
Missouri Public Service Commission
P.O. Box 360
Jefferson City, MO 65102

EFIS may be accessed from the Commission’s website, <https://psc.mo.gov>.

3. The Commission’s data center shall mail to Mr. Scott, by U.S. Mail addressed to Mr. Scott’s address of record, a copy of this order and the attached recommended report and order.

4. The recommended report and order shall be designated as confidential when filed in EFIS as an attachment to this order.

5. This order shall be effective when issued.
