ORDER MODIFYING JOINT PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

Issue Date: December 3, 2021

Effective Date: December 3, 2021

Symmetry Energy Solutions, LLC; Clearwater Enterprises, LLC; Spire Missouri, Inc.; the Commission’s Staff; the Office of the Public Counsel; and the Missouri School Boards’ Association filed a joint motion on the evening of December 2, 2021, asking the Commission to modify the joint procedural schedule established for these cases. The joint motion represents that the Midwest Energy Consumers Group does not oppose the motion. Constellation NewEnergy Gas Division is not a signatory to the joint motion and the joint motion does not indicate its position on the joint motion.

The joint motion explains that the established procedural schedule requires the complainants to file their direct testimony today, December 3, 2021. The parties agreed that Spire's corporate representative was to be deposed on November 30, 2021, which would have allowed for the use of that deposition in formulating the prefiled direct testimony. Unfortunately, Spire's corporate representative tested positive for the COVID-19 virus and the deposition has been postponed. The joint motion asks that the filing date for direct, rebuttal, and cross-rebuttal testimony be pushed back to accommodate the rescheduled deposition, which is now planned for December 13, 2021. The joint motion does not seek modification of the scheduled hearing dates of March 7-11, 2022.

The Commission will grant the joint motion.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. The following modified joint procedural schedule is established:

Direct Testimony by Complainants	-	December 20, 2021
