NOTICE CLOSING CASE

Issue Date: April 5, 2006

This case was opened to consider Fidelity Natural Gas' PGA tariffs and its 2004-2005 Actual Cost Adjustment. There has been no formal activity in this case while the Commission's Staff conducts its audit of the company's gas costs. Rather than leave this inactive file open while that audit proceeds, the Commission will close the case. This action will merely remove the case from the Commission's active case list without affecting any party's rights. When any party needs to do so, they may file a pleading in the closed case and thereby automatically reopen the case.
