KCP&L GREATER MISSOURI OPERATIONS COMPANY'S RESPONSE TO APPLICATION FOR REHEARING

Pursuant to 4 CSR 240-2.080, KCP&L Greater Missouri Operations Company ("KCP&L-GMO" or "Company") hereby respectfully submits to the Missouri Public Service Commission ("Commission") its response to the Application For Rehearing ("Motion") filed by Ag Processing, Inc, and Sedalia Industrial Energy Users' Association (collectively "Industrial Intervenors") filed on February 26, 2009. In support of its response, KCP&L-GMO states as follows:

1. On February 26, 2009, the Industrial Intervenors submitted their Application For Rehearing requesting that the Commission grant a rehearing (Motion, p. 2). For the reasons stated herein, the Commission should deny the Industrial Intervenors' Motion.

2. Section 386.500(1) states in part: "the commission shall grant and hold such rehearing, if in its judgment sufficient reason therefor be made to appear."

3. The Industrial Intervenors have not raised any new matters in their Motion from their previous erroneous arguments which were rejected by the unanimous Commission. As a result, they have not provided "sufficient reason" to grant a rehearing, and the Commission should deny their Motion.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, KCP&L-GMO respectfully requests that the Commission deny the Industrial Intervenors' Application For Rehearing.

Respectfully submitted,
