ORDER DIRECTING WOODRIVER TO RESPOND

Issue Date: May 17, 2022

Effective Date: May 17, 2022

On May 4, 2022, the WoodRiver Energy LLC (WoodRiver) filed an out of time application to intervene in Spire Missouri Inc.'s general rate case. WoodRiver's application states as follows:

“On April 4, 2022, the Commission issued an order and notice directing that interested parties wishing to intervene must do so on or before April 25, 2022. This application is therefore made after the intervention date.”

Commission Rule 20 CSR 4240-2.075(10) provides that the Commission may grant applications to intervene upon a showing of good cause. WoodRiver did not explain why its application to intervene was not timely filed nor did it provide good cause for granting its intervention.

The Commission will direct WoodRiver to file a response indicating why its intervention request was not timely filed, and stating what good cause exists to grant its request.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. WoodRiver shall file a response stating the reason its application to intervene was not timely filed and show good cause why its application should be granted.

2. This order is effective when issued.
