NOTICE ACKNOWLEDGING VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL AND CLOSING FILE

Issue Date: May 19, 2009

The Missouri Public Service Commission is issuing a notice that it is closing this file because the Commission's staff's ("Staff") has voluntarily dismissed its complaint under the following provision:

[A] complainant may voluntarily dismiss [the] complaint without an order of the commission at any time before prepared testimony has been filed or oral evidence has been offered, by filing a notice of dismissal with the commission and serving a copy on all parties.[1]

On May 19, 2009, Staff filed a notice of dismissal with the Commission. The notice includes a certificate of service to all counsel of record. No party has filed prepared testimony or offered oral evidence. Therefore, Staff's notice dismissed the complaint upon filing without an order of the Commission and the Commission closes the file.
