Case No. LA-2004-0133

MOTION TO BE EXCUSED FROM PREHEARING CONFERENCE

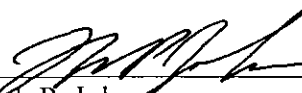

Comes now Intervenor Vonage Holdings Corp. and moves pursuant to 4 CSR 240-2.090(5) to be excused from the prehearing conference scheduled for January 30, 2004. In support of this Motion, Vonage states the following:

1. On December 30, 2003, the Commission issued its Order Setting Prehearing Conference, in which the Commission stated that issues related to Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) technology had been eliminated from the case as a result of the prehearing conference of November 21, 2003. Vonage's interest in the case concerned the possibility of a general discussion of VoIP.

2. As a result of the December 30 Order, Vonage does not at this point believe that the case will consider the issue of concern to it. As such, Vonage asks to be excused from the January 30 prehearing conference. However, as Vonage would like to continue to monitor developments in the case, it asks to remain on the service list.

Wherefore, Vonage Holdings Corp. respectfully requests that it be excused from the January 30 prehearing conference.

Respectfully submitted,
