JOINT SUGGESTIONS OF MISSOURI’S AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATIONS REGARDING THE PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

COME NOW the Missouri Farm Bureau Federation, Missouri Cattlemen’s Association, Missouri Pork Association, Missouri Soybean Association and Missouri Corn Growers Association (hereafter collectively referred to as “Missouri’s Agricultural Organizations”), by and through undersigned counsel, and set forth the following Suggestions Regarding the Procedural Schedule in this matter.

Missouri’s Agricultural Associations have reviewed the proposed procedural schedules filed by Grain Belt Express LLC and by the Commission’s Staff. The Agricultural Associations are in support of the proposed procedural schedule filed by the Commission’s Staff. The Agricultural Associations also support Grain Belt Express LLC’s proposed scheduling of local public hearings in all three counties impacted by the proposed project (Audrain, Callaway and Monroe), and that such hearings should be held before planting season in early March 2023 to allow full participation by agricultural landowners.

Respectfully submitted,
