

Michael Taylor, Imperial, MO.

Having the natural gas pipeline shutdown will impact hundreds of thousands of residential and business accounts (including major hospitals) from staying warm during the upcoming winter months. This will in essence shut down the entire St Louis region as well as potentially kill citizens. Citizens that can't stay warm or afford a higher electric bill if they purchased space heaters. Hospitals would not be able to operate either with no heat.

Document Content(s)

116922.txt.....1