

KCP&L's existing 69 kilovolt, three-phase transmission line including the poles, cross arms, insulators, conductors and other associated devices with the southern terminus located at the existing interconnection point between the City and KCP&L (approximately located at the intersection of Blue Ridge Cutoff and 40 Highway) and the northern terminus located at the existing interconnection point between the City and KCP&L (approximately located at the intersection of Blue Ridge Boulevard and Independence Avenue).