Excess of Such Minimum Rate)

Case No. IO-2009-0032

ERRATA MODIFYING ORDER

Issue Date: November 4, 2008

Effective Date: November 4, 2008

On October 30, 2008, the Commission issued an Order Authorizing Depreciation Rate. In the first paragraph of the order, as well as the first ordered paragraph, the Commission used the phrase "Digital Circuit Equipment." This errata corrects the phrase used in the Commission's October 30 Order.

The first sentence of the order should have read as follows: "On July 22, 2008, Citizens Telephone Company of Higginsville, Missouri filed an application with the Missouri Public Service Commission requesting authority to establish a minimum depreciation rate of 6.67% for Account 2212, Digital Switching Equipment, and to record depreciation expense at a rate of 16.67% for a period of one year beginning January 1, 2008, in excess of such minimum rate pursuant to §392.280.2 RSMo 2000."

Ordered paragraph one should have read as follows: "Citizens Telephone Company of Higginsville, Missouri shall establish a minimum depreciation rate of 6.67% for Account 2212, Digital Switching Equipment, and record depreciation expense at a rate of 16.67% for a period of one year beginning January 1, 2008, in excess of such minimum rate pursuant to §392.280.2, RSMo 2000.”

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. This order shall modify the Order Authorizing Depreciation Rate, issued October 30, 2008, as stated above.
2. This order shall become effective upon issuance.
