Case No. TE-2000-777

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE
1999 ANNUAL REPORT

Comes now American Farm Bureau, Inc. d/b/a The Farm Bureau Connection ("Farm Bureau" or "the Company"), by and through counsel and pursuant to 4 CSR 240-10.080 and 4 CSR 240-2.015, and for its Motion For Extension Of Time To File 1999 Annual Report respectfully states as follows:

1. On or about April 15, 2000, Farm Bureau attempted to file its 1999 verified Annual Report with the Commission. Apparently, said Annual Report was not actually received by the Commission until sometime after the April 15, 2000 deadline mandated by 4 CSR 240-10.080(1) and Section 392.210 RSMo 1994. As such, said Annual Report was rejected for filing and returned to the Company with instructions to re-file same along with a pleading, signed by counsel, requesting an extension.

2. It is unclear to counsel exactly why said Annual Report was not received by the Commission by the April 15, 2000 deadline, but it was either because of delays in the United States Mail or because of inadvertent internal difficulties within the Company in meeting the filing deadline. In either case, it was not the Company's intent to ignore the Commission's rule and the Company seeks to remedy the situation with this filing.

3. Upon receipt of the Commission's notification that it had rejected the filing, the Company sought and then employed counsel for the purpose of re-submitting the Company's Annual Report as quickly as possible. Due to scheduled hearings and other caseload commitments, counsel was unable to make this filing until this time.

4. 4 CSR 240-10.080(8) and 4 CSR 240-2.015 (to the extent applicable) allows a utility to request an extension of time within which to file the utility's annual report provided the reasons therefore are stated. Counsel has attempted to do so based on the information available to him and has included with this pleading one original of the Company's 1999 Annual Report for filing in the interest of providing the Commission with the Company's 1999 Annual Report as quickly as possible.

WHEREFORE, American Farm Bureau, Inc. d/b/a The Farm Bureau Connection respectfully moves the Commission to grant this Motion For Extension Of Time To File 1999 Annual Report and to accept as now submitted for filing the Company's 1999 Annual Report under the applicable Commission rules.
