Comes now Aquila, Inc. ("Aquila" or "Company"), by counsel, and for its Notice and Renewal of Request to the Missouri Public Service Commission ("Commission") states as follows:

1. That as an alternative to consolidation, paragraph 18 of the Staff's July 21, 2005, Motion for Procedural Schedule requested 30 days between its receipt of certain information from Aquila and the filing of initial direct testimony in this case by all parties.

"18. If the Commission rejects the Staff's motion to consolidate Case Nos. EO-2002-384 and ER-2005-00436 and the Staff's proposed consolidated schedule, and adopts the procedural schedule proposed by SIEUA and FEA, the Staff recommends that the schedule proposed by SIEUA and FEA be modified to require that Aquila provide billing unit data consistent with its proposed rate structures to the Staff no later than August 15, 2005, which is thirty (30) days prior to date SIEUA and FEA propose for the filing of direct testimony."

2. In response, Aquila hereby notifies the Commission that it has, this date, August 19, 2005, provided to the Staff and to the other parties to this proceeding, the Company's proposed rate structure changes, billing unit data and related proof of revenue for use in connection with rate design analysis all consistent with the Staff's request as memorialized in the Staff's July 21 Motion.

3. This provision of information is 30 days prior to the September 19, 2005, direct testimony filing date now proposed by Aquila and SIEUA/FEA thereby giving the Staff the 30 day interval which it requested in its July 21 Motion.

WHEREFORE, Aquila provides its Notice as aforesaid and renews its request that the Staff's Motion to Consolidate be denied, and that SIEUA/FEA's July 8, 2005, Motion for Procedural Schedule, as modified by the Company's July 26 Reply and SIEUA/FEA's August 1, Response (August 19 provision of information by Aquila; September 19 direct testimony filing date) be approved.
