LOCAL EXCHANGE ACCESS SERVICE

I. Local Exchange Access Service

A. Low-Income Telephone Assistance Program

The Low-Income Telephone Assistance Program, also known as Lifeline, has been authorized by the Missouri Public Service Commission and the Federal Communications Commission for low-income customer who meet the eligibility requirements. To be considered eligible, the applicant must receive benefits under one of the programs listed in paragraph I.B.3 following. Subscription to expanded service will only be allowed at the principal residence of those recipients, physically handicapped subscribers, certified by the Missouri Department of Health and Social Services. This program is also being established in accordance with the Commission's Rules prescribing the procedures for administering the Low-Income Telephone Assistance Fund. The program is provided in the telephone company's local serving area by the telephone company to reduce the telephone charges for eligible low-income customers.

(1) Support Amount – Customers eligible under the established criteria can receive a discount from their bill for essential local telecommunications service equal to the amounts approved by the Missouri Public Service Commission and the Federal Communications Commission. The amount of combined federal and state Lifeline support for any customer will not exceed the sum of the federal Subscriber Line Charge (SLC) and the recurring charges for essential local telecommunication services (including the basic service rate, Touch-Tone calling charge, extended areas service additive, and mileage additives, if any).
