ANNUAL MEETING

Grand River Mutual Telephone Corporation will hold the annual meeting of its shareholders at 10:00 am on August 21, 2013, at the Hal England Center in Princeton, MO.

The cooperative members will each be mailed a proxy card. If you are unable to attend the meeting, please sign and mail in your proxy.

New Name, New Era

n 1951, Grand River Mutual Telephone Corporation was established with the mission to provide affordable telephone service to areas in rural Missouri and Iowa. Over the years, Grand River Mutual Telephone has expanded by investing in various aspects of the telecommunications industry. In 1984, the cooperative purchased Lathrop Telephone Company and in 1997 purchased South Central Communications. By 1996, dial-up Internet service was quickly being adopted and GRM Broadband followed in 1999. The past board members and managers had the foresight to embrace the changes and plan for future growth. By broadening the base and investing in new technologies, Grand River Mutual Telephone Corporation created a rock-solid diversified business.

With all the growth, Grand River Mutual Telephone has built a multifaceted network of communication technologies to better serve the residents and businesses of north Missouri and south central Iowa. The state-of-the-art network allows rural hospitals to send and receive test results, farmers and other business owners to connect with suppliers and buyers worldwide, and local students are able to participate in online education. With this expansion, Grand River Mutual Telephone has simply outgrown the name and our role as a traditional local telephone company. We are now more than a telephone company; we are an intricate network comprised of advanced technologies with the goal of providing exceptional service to every customer.

On August 21, 2013, Grand River Mutual Telephone will begin doing business as GRM Networks. The official name of the cooperative will remain Grand River Mutual Telephone Corporation, but you will see the new GRM Networks logo on your bill, on signs, promotional materials, and on company vehicles. The local employees will continue to provide advanced technology with exceptional customer service under the GRM Networks name.
