MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS INTERVENORS

COMES NOW Neighbors United Against Ameren’s Power Line (Neighbors United), by and through its counsel, Hernandez Law Firm, LLC, and for its request for leave to withdraw as intervenors in this case, states as follows:

1. Neighbors United was granted leave to intervene on October 17, 2017
2. Neighbors United has entered into discussions with Ameren Transmission Company of Illinois (ATXI) regarding the proposed current project, and more specifically the current application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity (CCN) in their proposed Mark Twain project.
3. As a result of these discussions, Neighbors United and ATXI have come to a mutual understanding regarding many of the differences in the two parties’ positions. As such:
 - a. Neighbors United does not to object to the PSC granting ATXI a CCN pursuant to the proposed application.
 - b. Neighbors United requests leave to withdraw as a party from this application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity.

- c. ATXI and Neighbors United jointly recommend, that counsel for Neighbors United, Mr. Arturo A. Hernandez be allowed to remain on the service list for the duration of the CCN.

WHEREFORE, Neighbors United Against Ameren's Power Line respectfully requests leave to withdraw as a party and intervenor in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

HERNANDEZ LAW FIRM, LLC
