November 4, 2002

Organizational News WorldCom, Inc reiterated today the actions it has taken to restore confidence in the company including the appointment of new CFO, John Dubel, new members of the Board of Directors, a new Chief Restructuring Officer and new legal and financial advisors

These actions are pivotal as WorldCom, Inc continues a successful reorganization, becomes cash-flow positive, and emerges from bankruptcy

WorldCom CEO, John Sidgmore "We are working to create a new WorldCom We have developed and implemented new systems, policies and procedures We have reorganized our finance and accounting functions and have implemented, or are implementing, other organizational changes intended to help correct the company's past problems, pre-empt their reoccurrence and create a system that will permit its newly-appointed independent auditors to complete their review of the financial statements for the years 2000, 2001 and 2002 "

Mr Sidgmore said the company's newest Board members, which have been previously announced, are serving on the special investigative committee of the Board These Board members are

Nicholas deB Katzenbach, former US Attorney General, Under Secretary of State and Senior VP and General Counsel of IBM,

Dennis Beresford, Professor of Accounting at the Terry College of Business at the University of Georgia and former Chairman of the Financial Accounting Standards Board, and

C B Rogers, Jr , Chairman and CEO of Equifax, Inc and who has served on the Board of such companies as Sears, Roebuck & Co , Dean Witter and Briggs and Stratton Corp

"This is a terrific company with outstanding employees and loyal customers," Mr Sidgmore said "WorldCom is not the handful of people you have read about in the newspaper It is 63,000 hard working, dedicated people who are committed to their families, their jobs and their customers What the Board, senior management and every employee of this company can and will do, however, is take whatever action is necessary to ensure that the actions which caused the company's past problems cannot and will not happen again "

WorldCom Files Additional Chapter 11 Petitions for 43 Subsidiaries

CLINTON, Miss – November 8, 2002 – WorldCom, Inc (WCOEQ) today filed additional bankruptcy petitions for 43 of its subsidiaries, most of which were effectively inactive and none of which had significant debt. The petitions were filed with the U S Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. The company made the decision to file the additional entities in order to provide them with the same relief under Chapter 11 as its other businesses.

“Today’s filing is a formality,” said John Dubel, chief financial officer of WorldCom. “We have asked the Court for permission to jointly administer these cases under the WorldCom petition. Today, like every day, it’s business as usual for WorldCom and its subsidiaries.”

A court date has been set for November 12, 2002, to hear the company’s request.
