MOTION OF SHOW ME CONCERNED LANDOWNERS
FOR WAIVER OF COMMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR DISTRIBUTION OF CERTAIN EXHIBIT AT EVIDENTIARY HEARINGS

Comes now Show Me Concerned Landowners (“Show Me”) and for the reasons set forth below respectfully requests that the Commission waive the requirement, with respect to one exhibit referenced hereafter, that copies of exhibits offered at the evidentiary hearings be distributed to the bench and to counsel for all parties. In support of this Motion, Show Me states as follows:

1. Show Me anticipates that it may offer into evidence at the evidentiary hearings the Supplemental Response to Data Request MJM.15 (HC), dated February 6, 2017. The material consists of 342 pages. Normally that would require that Show Me provide the Commissioners, the Law Judge and counsel for all parties with a copy of that material at the time it is introduced.
2. This waiver is being requested simply to avoid needless duplication and distribution of voluminous material which can be made available to all concerned via EFIS. Show Me is willing to file the subject document on EFIS as a Highly Confidential document prior to the hearing.
3. If Show Me does offer the material in question at the evidentiary hearings, it would provide one copy for the court reporter.

WHEREFORE, if Show Me does offer the referenced document, it respectfully asks that it be relieved of the obligation to provide that material to anyone other than the court reporter under the conditions specified herein.

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/ David C. Linton
