STAFF’S MOTION TO RELEASE PUBLIC INFORMATION

COMES NOW the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission (Staff) and in support of its Motion to Release Public Information states:

1. In an abundance of caution, Staff filed the direct testimony and exhibits of Robert E. Schallenberg as Highly Confidential and the testimony remains “HC” today.
2. Staff has been waiting for Respondents to inform Staff as to what material it claims to be Highly Confidential. Staff has received no response from the Companies’ on this matter.
3. Staff requests the Commission issue its Order directing Respondents to respond to this request by November 8, 2006, or authorize the Staff to file Mr. Schallenberg’s testimony and exhibits as a public document on November 10.
4. Staff has likewise treated all of Mr. Ries’ depositions as “HC” and asked that Respondents read the depositions and mark all portions that should remain HC. Staff filed these depositions as attachemtns to Mr. Schallenberg’s testimony and will similarly refile these documents in both public and confidential versions.

WHEREFORE, the Staff respectfully asks the Commission issue its Order directing Respondents to indicate which parts of Mr. Schallenberg's testimony and exhibits it considers to be confidential no later than November 8, and if Respondents do not repond by November 8, to permit Staff to file Mr. Schallenberg's entire testimony and exhibits filing as public.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Lera Shemwell
