Subject: Supplier Diversity Luncheon - 11-26 @ Kemolls & Top of the Met
Date: Tuesday, November 19, 2013 12:42:06 PM

Good Afternoon:

Below is a message from Chairman Robert Kenney with the Missouri Public Service Commission regarding the Supplier Diversity Luncheon next Tuesday in St. Louis. Please be sure and RSVP as to whether you or someone else from your company will be attending.

Best,

Goldie

Hello:

I wanted to follow up with you on an invitation that you've received for a luncheon in which I will participate on November 26th at Kemolls & Top of the Met in St. Louis. If you haven't RSVP'd your attendance yet, I hope that you will make time in your schedule to attend.

The luncheon sponsors have asked me to share my thoughts on supplier diversity in the context of financial services. I know the attendees -- which will include representatives from Investor Owned Regulated utilities operating in the state of Missouri, as well as representatives from minority, women, and disabled veteran owned and small investment banks -- will also benefit from your thoughts on the subject and will want to learn more about initiatives that your company has in this area.

I look forward to seeing you at the luncheon.

Sincerely,

Robert S. Kenney, Chairman
