JOINT STATUS REPORT

COMES NOW Summit Natural Gas of Missouri, Inc. (“SNGMO” or “Company”), joined by Complainants Paul Brown and Debra Brown, and, in response to the Order Directing Status Report, respectfully states as follows to the Missouri Public Service Commission (“Commission”):

1. On May 26, 2017, the Commission directed that the complainants and respondents file joint or separate status reports no later than June 26, 2017, “indicating when they believe they will conclude their negotiations or other request for Commission action.”
2. Since the Commission’s May 26, 2017 Order was issued counsel for SNGMO has communicated again with counsel for Laclede Gas Company in regard to its position and expects further feedback. Further, Counsel for Complainants has begun a draft stipulation for the purpose of a possible resolution.
3. It will likely be at least July 20, 2017, before matters are likely to be presented to the Commission.

WHEREFORE, SNGMO, as joined by Complainants, respectfully request that the Commission consider this document to satisfy the Second Order Directing Status Report.

Respectfully submitted,

BRYDON, SWEARENGEN & ENGLAND P.C.
