INDIAN HILLS RESPONSE TO ORDER DIRECTING RESPONSE

COMES NOW Indian Hills Utility Operating Company, Inc. (“Indian Hills” or “Company”), and, as its Response to Order Directing Response, respectfully states as follows to the Missouri Public Service Commission (“Commission”):

1. On March 7, 2018, the Commission issued its Order Opening a Working Proceeding Regarding the Effects Upon Missouri Small Water and Sewer Utilities of the Tax Cuts of 2017 and Directing a Response (“Order Directing Response”). Among other things, the Order Directing Response directed small utilities to respond to four questions by March 22, 2018. The Company responds to those questions as follows:

Question - 01: For purposes of payment of income taxes, the Company is a C Corporation.

Question - 02: Effective March 17, 2018, the Company was authorized to begin collecting income tax expense in customer rates ($48,773 annually).

Question - 03: The Company has not yet performed, or caused to be performed, an analysis of the possible impact of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 on our cost of service and customer rates.

Question - 04: Generally speaking, any decisions regarding a potential change in customer rates would likely be made only after the impact (if any) was known, or once it could be calculated with an appropriate measure of confidence.

WHEREFORE, Indian Hills respectfully requests that the Commission consider this response to comply with the Order Directing Response.

Respectfully submitted,

BRYDON, SWEARENGEN & ENGLAND P.C.
