NOTICE REGARDING LATE-FILED TESTIMONY

On August 10, 1998, the Commission's Staff submitted late-filed direct testimony on depreciation rates. Although the Staff had filed the direct testimony of three witnesses on August 6, 1998, the Staff inadvertently failed to provide testimony to support the depreciation rates which were used by the Staff to calculate Miller Telephone Company's revenue requirement. All parties should have been served with copies of the late-filed testimony. The parties shall have until October 1, 1998, to file objections to the late-filed testimony.
