Service Commission

In the Matter of the Application of Cox Missouri Telcom, LLC) for a Certificate of Service Authority to Provide Basic Local) Telecommunications Service in Portions of the State of Missouri) and to Classify Said Services and the Company as Competitive.)

Case No. TA-2000-661

AMENDMENTS TO APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE AUTHORITY AND FOR COMPETITIVE CLASSIFICATION

Comes now Cox Missouri Telcom, L.L.C. ("Cox"), by its undersigned counsel, and hereby amends its application in this matter originally filed on April 12, 2000, as requested by Commission staffer Tom Solt on June 6, 2000:

1. The following are biographies of two of Cox Missouri Telcom, LLC's top technical people, as requested by Mr. Solt.

Harvard Bryan, Cox Communications, Inc.
Network Development Engineer, Middle America Cox

Harvard Bryan is a graduate of Southern Arkansas University with a B.S. in Physics.
Harvard started his career in cable TV in 1983 for TCA in Lafayette, Louisiana, where he worked twelve years as Manager of Technical Services. In 1995 Harvard moved to the TCA corporate office in Tyler, Texas, where he took up the newly created position of Telephony Coordinator, serving as engineering liaison between the cable TV operations and the ILEC partner in TCA Communications, Inc. That job has evolved into the position of Network Development Engineer for the Middle America Cox division.

Newton Farrar, Cox Communications, Inc.
Vice President, Cox Internet, Middle America Cox

Newton Farrar holds a BBA from Baylor University, and an MBA from Texas A&M University, with concentration in computer science. With over 18 years in data processing and the telecommunications industry, employment history includes duties as System Analyst at Anderson Consulting Co. and Trammell Crow Company. Founded and managed companies involved in interexchange long distance telephone, software development, and internet service industries. Newton now runs overall operations for the provisioning and delivery of internet services for Cox internet within the Middle America Cox division.

Respectfully submitted,

COUNSEL FOR APPLICANT COX MISSOURI TELCOM, L.L.C.
