JOINT STATUS REPORT (JULY)

COMES NOW Summit Natural Gas of Missouri, Inc. (“SNGMO” or “Company”), joined by Complainants Paul Brown and Debra Brown, and, in response to the Third Order Directing Status Report, respectfully states as follows to the Missouri Public Service Commission (“Commission”):

1. On June 29, 2017, the Commission directed that the complainants and respondents file joint or separate status reports no later than July 20, 2017, “indicating when they believe they will conclude their negotiations or when they will file a proposed procedural schedule of other request for Commission action.”
2. Since the Commission’s June 29, 2017 Order was issued Counsel for Complainants has begun a draft stipulation for the purpose of a possible resolution.
3. The Complainants and Respondent now believe it will likely be at least August 25, 2017, before matters are likely to be presented to the Commission.

WHEREFORE, SNGMO, as joined by Complainants, respectfully request that the Commission consider this document to satisfy the Third Order Directing Status Report.

Respectfully submitted,

BRYDON, SWEARENGEN & ENGLAND P.C.
