ORDER DIRECTING FILING

On March 29, 2000, counsel for Kansas City Power and Light Company advised counsel for GS Technology Operating Company, Inc., doing business as GST Steel Company (GST), by letter that certain items sought through discovery by GST did, in fact, exist, contrary to previous representations by KCPL. The letter was copied to the presiding officer, as well as to most of the involved attorneys. That letter refers to an enclosed privilege log. In fact, no privilege log was enclosed.

The presiding officer shall direct the Records Room to file this letter in the official case file. In future, any letter directed to, or copied to, the presiding officer shall be filed in the case file and served on all parties. KCPL shall serve a copy of the letter on any party not previously served. Finally, KCPL shall file the missing privilege log within ten days.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That Kansas City Power and Light Company shall file the privilege log referred to in the letter of March 29, 2000, from Gerald Reynolds to James Brew within ten days of the issue date of this Order.
