STATE OF MISSOURI, } ss.
County of Cass,

In the County Court of Cass County, Missouri, at the November Term, 1916, held on the 1st day of January 1917, amongst others, were the following proceedings:

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF
L. K. GREEN and SONS, FOR THE PERMISSION TO PLACE POLES AND STRING WIRES IN AND
ALONG THE RRAHS AND HIGHWAYS IN CASS COUNTY, MISSOURI, FOR THE PURPOSE OF BUILDING A TRANSMISSION LINE THEREIN.

Now comes L K Green, L R Green, and R J Green, doing business as co-partners, and under the firm name of L K Green and Sons, (not incorporated), and state that they are operating an electric light plant in Pleasant Hill, Cass County, Missouri, and also operating an electric light plant in Lees Summit, Jackson, County, Missouri, and it is their purpose to extend their service to other towns and villages, and individual consumers in said Cass County and Jackson County, Missouri, and to build transmission line or lines necessary for the furnishing of said service. Said transmission line or lines are to consist of tall poles on which cross arms are placed at or near the tops, on said cross arms are placed large socket insulators, to support the transmission wires, the said wires being insulated in an approved manner, and to be at such a height so as not to interfere in any manner with the full and free use of the said highways by the public.

The said poles will be so placed as not to interfere in any manner with the use of the highways, being placed as close as possible to the fence of the line of such highways. That the said Company, will restore all parts of the highway where it is necessary to dig or excavate, so that there shall be no damage or injury to the same. The said Company, its successors or assigns agree to protect and save harmless the said County from any liability, claims or damage which may arise out of said erection or maintenance of the said transmission line or lines.

Wherefore your petitioners pray the Court to make an order herein, permitting them to build said transmission lines, including the setting of poles, stringing of wires, and doing such other things as may be necessary and ordinarily incident to the construction and maintenance of said lines over the roads and highways of Cass County, Missouri.

L K Green and Sons,
by, G R Chamberlin, their attorney.
