CASE NO. TT-94-117

ORDER APPROVING TARIFF SHEET

On October 7, 1993, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Bell) filed a proposed tariff sheet designed to waive the non-recurring charge associated with 900 number blocking for business customers for a sixty day period beginning November 1, 1993 and ending December 31, 1993. Bell's current 900 number blocking service is offered to residential customers at no charge and to businesses at a non-recurring charge of $18.25. The Federal Communications Commission (FCC), in its Report and Order in FCC Docket No. 93-22, requires local exchange companies (LECs) to offer 900 number blocking to customers at no charge for a sixty day period beginning November 1, 1993. Bell states that its proposed tariff sheet will allow it to comply with the FCC's order.

On October 26, 1993, the Staff of the Commission (Staff) filed a memorandum recommending that the Commission approve Bell's proposed tariff sheet for service on and after November 1, 1993. Staff states that it has no objection to Bell's proposal and that the proposed tariff sheet complies with the FCC order.

Upon review of the FCC's Report and Order, Bell's proposed tariff sheet, and Staff's recommendation, the Commission finds that Bell's proposed tariff sheet is in compliance with the order of the FCC. Thus, the Commission determines that the tariff sheet filed by Bell on October 7, 1993 should be approved for service on and after November 1, 1993.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the following tariff sheet filed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company is hereby approved for service on and after November 1, 1993:

P.S.C. MO. No. 35

5th Revised Sheet No. 105 canceling 4th Revised Sheet No. 105.

2. That this Order shall become effective on November 1, 1993.
