OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

In the Matter of Jim Lepper, d/b/a Telstar, a ) Private Payphone Company, to Change Name to )

Jim Lepper, d/b/a Blue Line Payphone. )

ORDER RECOGNIZING CHANGE OF FICTITIOUS NAME AND AMENDING CERTIFICATE

Jim Lepper d/b/a TelStar, submitted a letter on March 22, 1999, indicating that he will be operating under the fictitious name "Blue Line Payphone." Mr. Lepper d/b/a TelStar was certificated to provide pay phone services on January 13, 1995, in Case No. TA-99-266. Mr. Lepper states in his letter that another company is doing business in Missouri under the name "TelStar" and therefore he intends to do business under a new fictitious name. A copy of his Fictitious Name Registration filed with the Missouri Secretary of State was included with his letter.

The Staff of the Commission (Staff) filed a memorandum on April 15, 1999, stating that it has reviewed Mr. Lepper's filing and has no objection to its approval. Staff recommended that the fictitious name be recognized and Mr. Lepper's certificate of service authority to provide private pay telephone service be amended to show the new name.

The Commission has reviewed Mr. Lepper's filing and Staff's recommendation, and finds that the change of a fictitious name should be recognized. The Commission further finds that the certificate of service authority to provide private pay phone service should be amended to reflect the new fictitious name.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

- That the change of fictitious name to "Jim Lepper d/b/a Blue Line Payphone" is acknowledged.
- 2. That the certificate of service authority to provide private payphone service granted on January 13, 1999, is amended to reflect the change of fictitious name.
  - 3. That this order shall become effective on April 29, 1999.
  - 4. That this case may close on April 30, 1999
