Aquila herein further states that in preparing said Proposed List of Witnesses and Order of Cross Examination, Aquila has conferred with all parties. In that none of the parties can anticipate how long a particular witness will be needed, the length of time necessary for cross-examination, redirect, or questions from the Commissioners, the parties anticipate that the proposed list will be followed in sequential order, moving from one witness to the next, until complete, except that those witnesses with stated limited availability will be accommodated on the stated date and time.

Furthermore, no party suggests by participating in said filing, that it is waiving any objection to any witness or evidence in these proceedings. Specifically, Aquila has filed with the Commission certain objections regarding witnesses for Cass County and STOPAQUILA.org and that by submitting this filing, Aquila herein does not waive any objection already made, which might be made, now, or in the future, with regards to the witnesses or evidence in these proceedings.

In that the said filing was prepared before the deadline for the filing of Surrebuttal and Cross-surrebuttal testimony, it is contemplated herein that a party may desire that additional witnesses be scheduled.

Respectfully submitted,
