ORDER WITHDRAWING CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE AUTHORITY

On November 24, 1999, the Commission issued an order that granted the application of C.C.O. Telecom, Inc. (C.C.O. Telecom) for a certificate of service authority to provide interexchange telecommunications services in Missouri. C.C.O. Telecom did not submit a proposed tariff along with its application. At C.C.O. Telecom's request, the Commission granted a waiver of 4 CSR 240-2.060(4)(H) to permit the filing of a tariff subsequent to the granting of certificate of service authority. However, the Commission's order directed C.C.O. Telecom to file its tariff with a 45-day effective date no later than December 27, 1999. The order also provided that if C.C.O. Telecom failed to file its tariff by December 28, 1999, then the certificate of service authority granted by the Commission would be withdrawn. C.C.O. Telecom has not yet filed its tariff.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the certificate of service authority to provide intrastate interexchange telecommunications services in the state of Missouri, which was granted to C.C.O. Telecom, Inc. by the Commission's order of November 24, 1999, is withdrawn

2. That this order shall become effective on January 18, 2000.
