5. Other than cases that have been docketed at the Commission, Laclede has no pending actions or final unsatisfied judgments or decisions against it from any state or federal agency or court which involve customer service or rates.

6. Laclede is current on its annual report and assessment fee obligations to the Commission, and no such report or assessment fee is overdue.

GOOD CAUSE FOR THE REQUESTED VARIANCE

7. By order dated January 12, 2011 in Case No. GE-2011-0171 (the “January 12 Order”), the Commission granted the Company a variance from Commission Rules 4 CSR 240-40.015(4)(B) and (C), and 40.016(5)(B) and (C), which permitted Laclede to maintain affiliate transaction information on a fiscal year basis (i.e., 12 months ended September 30), rather than on a calendar year basis, and to provide such information by December 15 of the succeeding fiscal year rather than on March 15 of the succeeding calendar year. As stated in the January 12 Order, this process is both more cost-effective for Laclede and less error prone than trying to assemble information from two different financial periods. The January 12 Order was incorporated into Laclede’s CAM, which was approved by the Commission by order dated August 14, 2013 in Case No. GC-2011-0098 et. al. (the “August 14 Order”).

8. Due to a health related issue and surgery for a key employee who prepares the report, the Company requests a variance from the January 12 Order, the CAM and the August 14 Order to permit the Company to make its annual CAM filing by December 19, 2014, or four business days after the current due date.

9. Good cause exists for the variance because it will help Laclede better ensure an accurate filing as our employee recovers from surgery. In addition, Laclede believes that the four-day extension will not cause any harm to or undue burden on any party. Laclede personnel have communicated with Staff and are authorized to represent that Staff does not object to the four day extension requested in this case. Finally, Laclede believes that no other public utility will be affected by the variance requested herein.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, Laclede Gas Company respectfully requests that the Commission issue its Order granting a variance from the January 12 Order, the CAM, the August 14 Order, and from Commission Rules 4 CSR 240-40.015(4)(B) and (C) and 40.016(5)(B) and (C), to permit the Company to make its annual CAM filing for Fiscal 2014 by December 19, 2014.

Respectfully Submitted,
