Application of AT&T Wireless Services, Inc.     )
for Approval of Interconnection Agreement     )     Case No. TO-2002-72

ORDER DIRECTING FILING

On August 15, 2001, AT&T Wireless Services, Inc., filed with the Missouri Public Service Commission its application for approval of an interconnection agreement with the following incumbent local exchange telephone companies: TDS Telecommunications Corporation, individually and as agent for its parent and affiliate companies, i.e., New London Telephone Company, Orchard Farm Telephone Company, and The Stoutland Telephone Company.

Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-2.060(1) states, in part:

(1) All applications shall comply with the requirements of these rules and shall include the following information:

(B) If any applicant is a Missouri corporation, a Certificate of Good Standing from the secretary of state;

(C) If any applicant is a foreign corporation, a certificate from the secretary of state that it is authorized to do business in Missouri;

(G) If any applicant has submitted the applicable information as set forth in [subsections (1)(B) or (C)] of this rule in a previous application, the same may be incorporated by reference to the case number in which the information was furnished, so long as such applicable information is current and correct;

...

(K) A statement indicating whether the applicant has any pending action or final unsatisfied judgments or decisions against it from any state or federal agency or court which involve customer service or rates, which action, judgment or decision has occurred within three (3) years of the date of the application;

(L) A statement that no annual report or assessment fees are overdue; and
(M) All applications shall be subscribed and verified by affidavit under oath by one (1) of the following methods: if an individual, by that individual; if a partnership, by an authorized member of the partnership; if a corporation, by an authorized officer of the corporation; if a municipality or political subdivision, by an authorized officer of the municipality or political subdivision; or by the attorney for the applicant if the application includes or is accompanied by a verified statement that the attorney is so authorized.

AT&T Wireless' application did not comply with those parts of Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-2.060(1) cited above in that it did not include: (1) If AT&T Wireless is a Missouri corporation, a Certificate of Good Standing from the secretary of state; (2) If AT&T Wireless is a foreign corporation, a certificate from the secretary of state that it is authorized to do business in Missouri; (3) If AT&T Wireless has submitted the applicable information as set forth in subsections (1)(B) or (C) of the rule in a previous application, the reference to the case number in which the information was furnished, so long as such applicable information is current and correct; (4) A statement indicating whether AT&T Wireless has any pending action or final unsatisfied judgments or decisions against it from any state or federal agency or court which involve customer service or rates, which action, judgment or decision has occurred within three years of the date of the application; (5) A statement that no annual report or assessment fees are overdue; (6) A statement that no annual report or assessment fees are overdue; and (7) A subscription and verification by affidavit under oath by an authorized officer of the corporation or by the attorney for AT&T Wireless if the application includes or is accompanied by a verified statement that the attorney is so authorized.

The Commission will require AT&T Wireless to file a supplemental pleading that supplies the information requested above.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That AT&T Wireless Telecom, Inc. must file, no later than September 4, 2001, a supplemental pleading in compliance with this order.
2. That this order shall become effective on September 1, 2001.
