ORDER APPROVING TARIFF

On December 20, 1996, the Commission issued its Report and Order in this case. That order specifically rejected the tariff as submitted by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (SWBT) on February 15, 1996. The Commission, however, directed SWBT to file a tariff in compliance with the Report and Order and consistent with SWBT's motion for leave to amend its position in this case. The Commission further directed that such a tariff must provide for resale of the Designated Number Optional Calling Plan (DNOCP) at a discounted wholesale rate.

On January 7, 1997, SWBT filed its revised tariff in compliance with the Commission's Report and Order. On January 28, the telecommunications department staff (Staff) of the Commission filed its staff memorandum in which it recommended approval of the tariff. Staff notes that SWBT has removed the restriction against resale consistent with the Commission's order. The staff memorandum further sets out compliance with the Commission's requirement that this service be made available at a wholesale rate. The wholesale rate at which this service would be sold to other telecommunications carriers will be determined by individual Interconnection Agreements and for that reason could not be stated with specificity in the tariff. The compliance tariff also makes clear that businesses are prohibited from aggregating traffic through Telebranching or remote call forwarding under this plan. The staff has recommended approval of the proposed tariff sheets on the proposed effective date of February 6, 1997. Staff states that it has analyzed the proposed tariff and finds it in compliance with the Commission's order issued December 20, 1996, in Case No. TT-96-268.

The Commission finds that the tariff filed by SWBT on January 7, 1997, is in compliance with the Commission's order. The Commission will approve the tariff for service on and after February 6, 1997.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the tariff filing, number 9700423, as filed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in this case on January 7, 1997, is hereby approved for service on and after February 6, 1997. The tariff sheets approved are:
