ORDER DIRECTING COMPLAINANT TO SHOW CAUSE WHY
HER COMPLAINT SHOULD NOT BE DISMISSED

Issue Date: March 1, 2007

Effective Date: March 1, 2007

Erika J. Bush filed a complaint against Kansas City Power & Light Company (KCPL) on November 9, 2006, which resulted in the Missouri Public Service Commission opening this case.

On January 23, 2007, the Commission issued an order which, among other things, scheduled a prehearing conference for February 22, 2007, at 10:00 a.m., and provided a toll-free number to allow parties to participate by telephone. That order expressly required all parties to participate in the prehearing conference and advised the Ms. Bush that her complaint could be dismissed if she failed to participate.

The prehearing conference was held on February 22, at the scheduled time. KCPL and the Commission's Staff appeared at the conference by their counsel. Ms. Bush did not appear in person and did not appear by telephone.

Ms. Bush will be ordered to file a statement explaining why she failed to attend the prehearing conference. Ms. Bush is advised that failure to provide a good reason for failing to attend the prehearing conference could result in her complaint being dismissed.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Erika J. Bush shall file a statement, not later than March 15, 2007, showing cause why her complaint against Kansas City Power & Light Company should not be dismissed.
2. This order shall become effective on March 1, 2007.
