4. The Complainant has been informed of the contents of this pleading and agrees with its intent.

WHEREFORE, since the matter appears to have been resolved informally, without the need for additional formal proceedings, the Company requests that this matter be passed until October 10. By that date, the parties will either inform the Commission that the matter has been resolved and request that the Complaint be dismissed, or that some additional time will be required before that dismissal may be requested. In any event, the parties will report back to the Commission by October 10.

Dated: September 7, 2000

Respectfully submitted,

AmerenUE
