RESPONSE TO THE MISSOURI RETAILERS ASSOCIATION MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE TESTIMONY ENTIRELY HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL

Robert Wagner provides his response to the Missouri Retailers Association motion for leave to file testimony entirely highly confidential on January 5, 2011. The Missouri Retailers Association requested that the surrebuttal testimony of Walter Drabinski be allowed to file the testimony entirely as highly confidential.

Due to the fact that certain parties involved in the above cases are prohibited from viewing highly confidential testimony, acceptance of MRA's request would result in parties that would be excluded from this testimony in its entirety. As such, it is the position of Robert Wagner that highly confidential only testimony not be permitted per 4 CSR 240-2.135(10)A. However, it would be acceptable for a detailed summary of this testimony to be filed publicly if a redacted version appears meaningless. This summary should provide enough information so the intent of the witness is understood, the issues presented and the reasoning why it is classified as highly confidential. The purpose is to allow any party excluded from highly confidential testimony the ability to understand if it is related to their position and file further motions to review such testimony.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Wagner
