Re: Sage Telecom, Inc.

Dear Judge Roberts:

You will find enclosed the original and five copies of Sage Telecom, Inc.'s Request for Confidential Treatment of its 2002 CLEC Annual Report. Also enclosed is one copy of the annual report with the HC portions removed, and one copy of the annual report filed under seal.

We are submitting this request pursuant to 4 CSR 240-3.540 and in accord therewith, we are specifically requesting the Secretary, and in turn the Commission, to treat with utmost confidence certain portions of the annual report that are described in the request.

Please contact me if you have any questions regarding this filing. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

NEWMAN, COMLEY & RUTH P.C.

In the Matter of Sage Telecom, Inc.'s) 2002 Annual Report to the Commission as)
A Competitive Local Exchange Carrier and) Confidential Treatment of a Portion Thereof)

Case No. _____

REQUEST FOR CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT OF ANNUAL REPORT

Comes now Sage Telecom, Inc. ("Sage" or "the Company"), by and through counsel, and pursuant to 4 CSR 240-3.540 respectfully requests and petitions the Secretary and the Commission to protect from public disclosure and to treat with utmost confidence paragraph 11 on page 4 and paragraph 14 on page 5 (including Exhibit A to paragraph 14) of its 2002 Annual Report to the Commission as a Competitive Local Exchange Carrier (the Annual Report). In support thereof, Sage states the following:

1. In accord with past Commission directives,¹ there is submitted with the original of this request a complete confidential version of Sage's 2002 Annual Report under seal for Staff access, and a public version of the Annual Report in which portions of pages 4 and 5 have been clearly marked as containing highly confidential material.

2. With the exception of portions of pages 4 and 5, the Company does not seek extraordinary or confidential treatment for the Annual Report.

3. Portions of pages 4 and 5 contain financial information and access line data. Sage deems these pages to be confidential because they contain market sensitive information that competitors could use to their economic advantage.

¹See In the Matter of the Application of Teligent, Inc., to Close Information Presented in 1998 Annual Report, Case No. TO-99-543.

4. Because all but portions of pages 4 and 5 of the Annual Report will be available for public inspection, there can be no argument that the public interest will be negatively affected by granting Sage's request. Public disclosure of the contents of portions of pages 4 and 5 would have negligible benefit for the public, but would unfairly place Sage's competitive efforts at risk.

5. Permitting confidential treatment of Sage's Annual Report would be in the interest of fairness and justice without compromising the interest of the public.

WHEREFORE, Sage respectfully requests the Secretary and the Commission to:

1. Protect from public disclosure and treat with the utmost confidence paragraph 11 on page 4 and paragraph 14 on page 5 (including Exhibit A to paragraph 14) of its Annual Report, and
2. Enter such other orders and relief, including a declaration that highly confidential portions of pages 4 and 5 are a "closed record(s)" as defined in Missouri law, that the Commission deems meet and just under the circumstances.

Respectfully submitted,

Mark W. Comley #28847
