ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO BE EXCUSED FROM PARTICIPATION IN THE EVIDENTIARY HEARING

Issue Date: March 23, 2010

Effective Date: March 23, 2010

On March 17, 2010, Four Seasons Racquet and Country Club Condominium Property Owners Association, Inc. ("Racquet Club") requested that it be excused from attending and participating in the evidentiary hearing scheduled for March 29 to April 2, 2010. In support of its motion, the Racquet Club states that it entered into a "Partial Non-Unanimous Stipulation Respecting Adjustments to Sewer Charges Applicable to Intervenor Four Seasons Racquet and Country Club Condominium Property Owners Association, Inc." ("Stipulation"), and if the Commission approves the Stipulation it will resolve the Racquet Club's issue and concern for intervening in this matter. No party has opposed the Stipulation, and the Racquet Club wishes to be excused from the time and expense of having counsel attend and participate in the evidentiary hearing.

The Racquet Club observes that Paragraphs 17 and 18 of the Stipulation provide that the parties may file written suggestions in support of the Stipulation, or may provide verbal explanations concerning the Stipulation to the Commission at any agenda meeting at which this case is noticed to be considered by the Commission. To that end, the Racquet Club advises the Commission that it is available to participate in any agenda meeting other than those scheduled for March 24, March 31 or April 7, 2010.

The Commission finds the Racquet Club's request to be reasonable and will grant it.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. The Four Seasons Racquet and Country Club Condominium Property Owners Association, Inc.'s motion to be excused from attending and participating in the evidentiary hearing is granted.

2. This order shall become effective immediately upon issuance.
