PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

10. L

3. The Commission has ordered all Missouri utilities to file certain information regarding the input of the Tax Reform Act of 1986.

4. That although it is not clear by the Order of the Commission, it appears that the Order that the Commission may ultimately issue in this docket will have an impact on the electric rate that Doe Run Company pays to Arkansas Power & Light Company.

5. Doe Run Company seeks permission to intervene in any hearing ordered by the Missouri Public Service Commission in this case as an interested party.

WHEREFORE, Doe Run Company respectfully requests the Missouri Public Service Commission to enter its Order authorizing Doe Run Company to intervene in the aforesaid matter as an interested party intervenor; to participate in all proceedings in the above case; to receive copies of all orders, copies of testimony, exhibits, and all other papers and matters to be presented in said case from all other parties, including but not limited to the Commission Staff, the Office of Public Counsel, affected utilities and any other intervenors or interested parties.

Dated this 12TH day of December, 1986.
