ORDER DIRECTING FILING

Issue Date: April 10, 2007

Effective Date: April 10, 2007

This order directs the complainants to explain their failure to appear at the settlement conference.

On January 29, 2007, the Commission issued an Order Setting Procedural Schedule. In that order, the Commission set a settlement conference for April 5. The Commission held the conference on April 5, but the complainants failed to appear and failed to file any pleadings with the Commission concerning their failure to appear.

Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-2.116(3) states that a party may be dismissed for failure to comply with a Commission order, including failure to appear at a scheduled proceeding such as a prehearing conference. The Commission will order the complainants to explain why the Commission should not dismiss their complaints for failure to appear at the April 5 settlement conference.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Gerald and Joanne Reiersen and Robert M. Hellebusch shall file a pleading as directed above no later than April 17, 2007.
2. This order shall become effective on April 10, 2007.
