

In an effort to make as much information available to the public as possible, the Commission will direct New Florence Telephone Company to review the transcript of the in-camera proceedings – Volume 3 of the transcript – to identify specific information that should be protected from disclosure. The Company shall then file a public version of the transcript with the protected information redacted. Thereafter, the other parties will be given an opportunity to comment on the public version of the transcript to indicate any disagreement they may have with the specific redactions.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. No later than July 17, 2006, New Florence Telephone Company shall file a public version of Volume 3 of the transcript, with confidential information redacted.
2. Any party wishing to comment on the public version of Volume 3 of the transcript to be filed by New Florence Telephone Company shall do so no later than July 20, 2006.
3. This order shall become effective on July 13, 2006.
