NOTICE ADVISING COMPLAINANT THAT COMPLAINT MAY BE DISMISSED IF DEFICIENCY IS NOT CORRECTED

Issue Date: April 12, 2006

On March 10, 2006, Veterans Travel Service, Inc., filed a complaint against AT&T regarding phone service it has received from that company. The complaint is deficient in that it was filed by a non-attorney. As a corporation, Veterans Travel Service cannot appear before the Commission unless represented by an attorney licensed to practice law in Missouri. On March 15, Kimberly Happy, manager of the Commission's data center, mailed a letter to Ms. Valerie Cooper at Veterans Travel Service advising the company of this deficiency, but Veterans Travel Service has not responded.

The Commission cannot proceed to consider this complaint until the deficiency is corrected. For that reason, Veterans Travel Service is advised that its complaint may be dismissed unless an attorney licensed in Missouri enters an appearance on behalf of Veterans Travel Service by May 12, 2006.
