EXCHANGE ACCESS SERVICE TARIFF

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS (Cont'd)*2.6 Payment Arrangements*2.6.1 Payment for Services

The Customer is responsible for the payment of all charges for facilities and service furnished to the Customer or to authorized or joint users.

2.6.2 Cancellation of Application

When the order for the associated local telephone exchange service is canceled, no cancellation charges apply to the End User. If the Company has incurred any expenses before the Company receives the cancellation notice, the Customer may be charged for costs that may have been incurred.

2.6.3 Changes to Orders

When changes are made to orders for the local exchange service associated with Customer or End User Access, any necessary changes will be made for End User Access at no additional charge. Upon receipt of notice from the Customer, the Company will add, delete or change locations or features of specific services. A service order charge to change an existing service as listed in the Company's MO P.S.C. Tariff No. 1 in Section 3.3.2 (A)(2)(f)(I) may apply.

2.6.4 Allowance for Interruptions

When there is an interruption to a common line, requested credit allowances for interruptions will be provided as set forth below:

- A. When a Customer's service is interrupted and remains out of service for more than twenty-four (24) consecutive hours after being reported to the Company or after being found by the Company to be out of service (whichever occurs first), an adjustment will be made to the Customer's account in accordance with B below of this rule. The length of such service interruptions shall be computed on a continuous basis, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays included. For the purpose of administering this regulation, every month is considered to have thirty (30) days.
- B. If a service interruption remains out of order in excess of twenty-four (24) hours after being reported, appropriate adjustments or refunds shall be made to the Customer, upon the Customer's request. The refund to the Customer shall be the pro rata part of the month's charge for the period of days and that portion of the service and facilities rendered useless or inoperative. The refund may be accomplished by a credit on the subsequent bill for telephone service.
