

Diversity Day Opening Ceremony
July 15, 2011
9:00-10:00
Ameren General Office Building, 2nd Floor Atrium

PSC Commissioners in attendance: Chairman Gunn and Commissioner Kenney.

Ameren Missouri individuals in attendance:

Warner Baxter, Warren Wood, Tom Byrne, Gaye Suggett, Gilda Baldwin, Judy Goestenkors and Shirley Stennis. All Ameren employees were invited to attend and there were numerous other employees in attendance. An attendance record was not kept.

Elected officials in attendance:

Josh Weise (representing St. Louis Mayor Slay's Office), Charlie Dooley (County Executive), and Missouri Senator Robin Wright-Jones.

Ameren Missouri hosted a Diversity Event at the Company's General Office Building on July 15, 2011. As part of the Opening Ceremony, Ameren Missouri President and Chief Executive Officer Warner Baxter accepted proclamations from the City and County of St. Louis, and from the House of Representatives and the Senate for the Company's leadership in diversity. Mr. Baxter also presented awards to two Ameren Missouri employees for winning the "Diversity Is" competition. Commissioner Kenney gave a presentation on the importance of diversity and said he appreciated the work Ameren has done in this area. Mr. Baxter thanked Commissioner Kenney and Chairman Gunn for attending the event. After the Opening Ceremony, both Commissioner Kenney and Chairman Gunn toured some of the exhibitions, as listed on the attached Calendar of Events.
